Consideration of bid packages for demolition of 11741 Corduroy Road

Mark Sattler reported the building is a hazard to the community and a health hazard as well and has been a concern with the Township for many years. The Fire Department had declared the building unsafe. David Bench reported he made a site visit and indicated the 2nd floor was down and the building overall structure has been compromised. Two bids were secured by the Township.

The board of trustees opened bid packages for the demolition of 11741 Corduroy Road project
